

L&H 2015 Autumn Auction is Right Under the Hammer
Plenty of Rare Collections will be Presented in 5 Special Sessions:
Tea Ware Auction/ Agarwood Auction/ Jade Auction/
Wine Auction/ the 6th Photographica Auction
Preview: Nov 27th-28th | Auction: Nov 28th

L&H Auction Co., Ltd (L&H Auction) will present the autumn auction on Nov 28th (Sat) at Grand Hyatt Hong Kong. The public preview will be on Nov 27th-28th. Besides the "L&H Rare Photographica Auction" which has been highly expected by the whole international photographica industry and the Tea Ware Auction which carries on the attention from collectors, there will also be Agarwood Auction, Jade Auction and Wine Auction this time. Over 400 precious lots in this autumn auction will be presented to public, the current estimated price is around HKD60,000,000, which is a great event that worths high expectation.

"Carrying on the great result we have achieved in last auction, we arranged to present agarwood and Chinan with an individual session this time. The great collection of rare Submerged Chinan and Hainan Agar makes it an unmissable opportunity to enjoy the incense. Meanwhile, inspired by the positive impacts from our previous experience of adding individual sessions, we divided the auction by categories with more lots, hoping that this arrangement can draw more attention of global collectors. The lots included 5 categories -- tea and tea ware, agarwood and Chinan, jade, fine wine, and photographica -- containing plenty of rare treasures. Our purpose is to thank all collectors for their lasting support and trust, and we mean to make L&H Auction a great platform for rare collection exchange around the world," says Mr. Henry Chau, the CEO of L&H Auction.

The preview of this autumn auction will officially go live from Nov 27th - 28th at Grand Hyatt Hong Kong in the Drawing Room of flat M. Public visit is warmly welcomed. In addition, for promoting and sharing the culture, 3 sessions of tea ceremony and 6 sessions of incense ceremony will be arranged. A professional tea art expert will host the tea ceremony sessions. For the incense ceremony sessions, it is particularly noteworthy that Master NISHIGIWA Shigetaka from Japan has been invited to be the host. The registration is totally free ofcharge with limited seats, so an appointment in advance is required.

LOT 6024. Leica MP Black Paint, #MP-90, 1956-1957

Estimate price: HK$2,000,000 – HK$3,000,000

Initially, Leica early MP was custom-made for limited professional photographers and reporters. With Leicavit, the user can quickly shoot up to two frames per second without taking the camera away from their eyes so that the decisive moments can be quickly recorded. Only around 138 units were produced during 1956-1957 with serial numbers starting from MP-013 to MP-150. (Please refer to James Lager Vol. IP.193 for further illustrations). This camera is made in original black paint. The serial number engraved at the bottom matches that of the body. It comes with a Summicron-M 2/5m black painted lens in raw brass mount (#1468971), leicavit and front lens cap; extremely rare.

LOT 6009. Noctilux 1.2/50mm Screw Mount, # 2247819, 1967

Estimate price: HK$300,000 – HK$500,000

Here is one of the most mythical lenses ever made, a rare Noctilux 1.2/50mm lens in Leica screw mount. It comes with both lens caps and hood (#12503), in mint condition.

About L&H AUCTION

L&H Auction Co. Ltd. collects the world's rarest antique cameras and we are honoured to have Mr. James L. Larger, the renowned Leica researcher and historian as our consultant. L&H Auction has created a precedent for dedicated camera auction in Hong Kong. As the first auction house holding professional photographic auctions in Asia, L&H Auction Co. Ltd. has achieved a total turnover of more than HK$ 39 million in its third auction. In just two years, it has risen to rank no.2 in the special camera auction industry worldwide.

Mission: L&H Auction Co. Ltd. specializes in sourcing exceptional cameras and lens from all over the world, including classic cameras, lens and related accessories. L&H Auction does not only provide professional services and a new platform in the Asia region for discerning collectors, we are also actively involved in the cultural development and dissemination. During the past two years, L&H Auction has held Leica seminars in Beijing and Hong Kong, inviting the renowned Leica researcher and historian, Mr. James L. Larger and Vice President of the Leica Historical Society, Mr. Lars Netopil to give talks during the events, providing a valuable opportunity for Leica enthusiasts and collectors to communicate face to face with the Leica masters.

L&H Auction will continue to explore and develop a diversified platform through different channels in Asia and maintain our fundamental principles of "High Quality, Good Taste, High degree of Integrity".

Apart from bidding onsite or through telephone / e-mail, bidders may also watch our auction live and bid simultaneously. If you wish to register for a paddle number or obtain a copy of the catalogue, you may e-mail us your full name and contact number (auction@lh-hk.com), or simply give us a call at 852-3168-2192.
